

Chapters 2,3,4, and 5 are published respectively in the Journal of Sound and Vibration, Nonlinear Dynamics, Journal of Applied Physics, and Applied Physics Letters. I retain the right to include the chapters 2-5 in my dissertation. The language that permits me to include these chapters in my thesis are included below

- Journal of Sound Vibration - <https://www.elsevier.com/about/policies/copyright/permissions>

Can I include/use my article in my thesis/dissertation?

Yes. Authors can include their articles in full or in part in a thesis or dissertation for non-commercial purposes.

“Author reuse

Please check the Copyright Transfer Statement (CTS) or Licence to Publish (LTP) that you have signed with Springer Nature to find further information about the reuse of your content.

Authors have the right to reuse their article’s Version of Record, in whole or in part, in their own thesis. Additionally, they may reproduce and make available their thesis, including Springer Nature content, as required by their awarding academic institution. Authors must properly cite the published article in their thesis according to current citation standards.

Material from: 'AUTHOR, TITLE, JOURNAL TITLE, published [YEAR], [publisher - as it appears on our copyright page]'

If you are any doubt about whether your intended re-use is covered, please contact journalpermissions@springernature.com for confirmation.”

- Applied Physics Letters and Journal of Applied Physics - <https://publishing.aip.org/resources/researchers/rights-and-permissions/permissions/>

Authors do not need permission from AIP Publishing to:

- reuse your own AIP Publishing article in your thesis or dissertation
