In the Chat Box, please identify any courses in which you are thinking about trying to add inclusive content in the coming year.

We will try to address your specific interest areas.

History of the land awarded to Land Grant Universities – The Reality

In 1862, President Abraham Lincoln signed the Morrill Act, which distributed public domain lands to raise funds for fledgling colleges across the nation. Now thriving, the institutions seldom ask who paid for their good fortune. Their students sit in halls named after the act's sponsor, Vermont Rep. Justin Morrill, and stroll past panoramic murals that embody creation stories that start with gifts of free land.

Headquarters

This national guidance document has been adopted from a document created by a Western Region Program Leaders Workgroup (Katherine E. Soule, James Lindstrom, Sarah Chvilicek, and Jean Glowacki). It has been approved by the National 4-H Program Leaders Working Group and 4-H National Headquarters.

4-H Guidance for Inclusion of Individuals of All Gender Identities, Gender Expressions, Sexual Orientations, and Sexes

As the nation's largest youth development program, 4-H engages millions of people from all areas of the country to provide opportunities for youth to learn life skills, confidence, and compassion. The 4-H Program is committed to being inclusive and welcoming of all forms of diversity. This 4-H Program guidance was developed to guide 4-H Programs around the country on how to be inclusive for individuals of all gender identities, gender expressions, sexual orientations, and sexes. These guidelines shall serve as guidance for all members of 4-H communities, including staff, faculty, youth members, adult volunteers, families, and other community members.

Conflict Management

- What I heard you say was.....
- Tell me more about what you meant by....
- What angered you?
- What about that sparked that emotional response?
- What' familiar bout what happened? How did/does it affect you?
- What do you need/want from this interaction?

We all want to BELONG

The status quo is comfortable

Are you trying to change their mind or give them a path to investigate?

Communicating in Discomfort

1. Reflect back what is being said. Use their words, not yours.
2. Begin where they are, not where you want them to be.
3. Be curious & open to what they are trying to say.
4. Notice what they are saying & what they are not.
5. Emotionally relate to how they are feeling. Nurture the relationship.
6. Notice how you are feeling. Be honest & authentic.
7. Take responsibility for your part in the conflict or misunderstanding.
8. Try to understand how their past affects who they are & how those experiences affect their relationship with you.
9. Stay with the process & the relationship, not just the solution.

Preparing for Class

- LMS: essential for students in a connected classroom. Be sure to share ALL content before class session because this is the shared environment
- Avoid last minute changes or additions so that students can be better prepared with the most current version of your information
- Pre-record: 5-7 min

and finishing your degree, because my goal for you is to work on understanding the research process, what it is, and eventually crafting a draft of your proposal that you and your advisor will continue to work on as you move forward and finishing your degree, whether you're working on an MEd master's degree, your master's or your dissertation, PhD. I hope this class will help give you a good place to begin to understand researches and where you will find the that are interesting to you to conduct research on to finish your education, we will use Canvas this semester as our course management system.

Communication modes: multiple

Boundaries

Tech support: tutorials, screencasts, org site links

Limitations of synchronous: active learning focus, using breakout rooms-connection issues both tech & personal

Content needs to be simplified & slowed down

Grades mean less, FEEDBACK becomes key

Summative assessment focus on creation, not memorization

During a Class

- Start by confirming that students at all locations can see & hear you
- Let students know if your class session will be recorded
- Helps with understanding, keeping up, fast talking, lags in internet
- Cameras: Be aware of your camera presence & stay in frame - confirm proper placement
- Make “eye contact” with camera when possible, it connects you to your students

Lessons We Have Learned

- Book clubs – they are worthy activities but does anyone in the book group have the expertise to facilitate?
- Class development- do you feel ready to do this, it's a very heavy PD experience
 - Dr. Stacy Vincent is developing a PD program to support this work – please provide feedback in today's webinar survey
- ADA mistakes happen

Continuing the Conversations

Based on a couple of ideas mentioned in the survey feedback last week, we think there are topics people would like to have offered as focused discussion groups.

If interested, there is list of initial topics and a space to add other topics within today's webinar survey.
