

Bibliography / Credits

Eliade, Mircea, The Sacred and the Profane, New York, 1987.

Johnson, Nell E., Light is the Theme: Louis Kahn and the Kimball Art Museum, Fort Worth Texas, 1975.

Lobell, John, Between Silence and Light, Boston, Massachusetts, 1979.

Norberg-Shulz, Christian, Genus Loci, Towards a Phenomenology of Architecture, New York, 1984.

Unless otherwise noted, all images and work are by author.

V i t a

Paul F. Russell

Professional Registration

December 1999	NCARB Architectural Registration by Exam
---------------	--

Education

1990-2005	Virginia Polytechnic and State University. Masters of Architecture
-----------	--

1982-1986	Texas A & M University. Bachelor of Environmental Design.
-----------	---

Employment

1996-Present	Hughes Group Architects. Sterling, Virginia. Project Architect/Project Manager.
--------------	---

1994-1996	A.S.D. Architects, Interiors. Vienna, Virginia Project Architect/Project Manager.
-----------	---

1993-1994	Nobles, Associates Architects. Reston, Virginia. Project Architect.
-----------	---

1991-1993	Anderson, Cooper, Georgelas Architects. McLean, Virginia Draftsman.
-----------	---

1987-1991	Paul Temples Associates, P.C. Architects. Fairfax, Virginia. Project Manager.
-----------	---

1984-1986	Kendall Heaton Associates, Architects. Houston, Texas Intern Architect.
-----------	---

Acknowledgements

I would like to thank my committee Greg Hunt, Jim Ritter, and Susan Piedmont-Palladino for their patience and willingness to share the wisdom they have acquired in the field of architecture, for their desire to teach and pass on the torch. I wish to thank my wife for believing in me and encouraging me through this journey and I wish to thank my God for this wonderful creation we call home and the sun that gives us life.

