Dear Karin,

Please excuse my delay in responding to your request, but (fortunately) I was on vacation. In any event, Dennis and I had discussed your situation and I'm glad to grant permission for the use of your chapter in your dissertation. We don't need anything more formal than this email, but let me know if any other source wants any type of form completed. Thanks very much for your contribution to this great book. I hope that there's an opportunity to work together on a future project.

Best wishes,
Chris

Hello Andrea,

I submitted a permission request on July 18 regarding using my book chapter as part of my dissertation. The time is nearing when I need to submit my work to my advisor. Can you please assist me in getting the permissions? The original request is in the thread below.

Thank you!
