

RFD

Issue

Number 178: "Rebellion Feels Delicious"

Date

Summer 2019

Description

RFD is a reader-written journal for gay people which focuses on country living and encourages alternative lifestyles. Each issue has a subtitle with a different potential meaning for the letters RFD. Featured here is an interview with Donald Gallagher about his memories of the Stonewall riot.

THE INTERLOPER

Issue

Number 2

Date

Fall 2014

Description

Subtitled "Virginia Tech's LGBT Magazine", The Interloper published its first issue in Spring 2014. The magazine's focus is to create a space for advocates of the queer community to voice their perspectives and opinions. Featured here are pages highlighting two of Virginia Tech's LGBTQ+ student organizations.

DENIM DAY FLYER

Collection

Record Group Vertical Files

Date

2019

More about
Denim Day in 1979

Description

Flyer for the 2019 event Denim Day at Virginia Tech commemorating the 40th anniversary of the first Lesbian and Gay Awareness Week in 1979 which included the first Denim Day on Virginia Tech's campus.

"THE CLOSET" SIGN

Collection

Records of HokiePRIDE

Date

Undated, possibly 1990s

Description

Sign used by HokiePRIDE during Gay Awareness Week circa 1990s or 2000s. This sign was attached to a doorframe and people were invited to step through the doorway to "come out" or share their sexuality publicly.

MAILER: INTERNATIONAL MARCH AND STONEWALL 25 PLANNING MEETING

Collection

Records of HokiePRIDE

Date

1993

Description

Summary of the history of the Stonewall Riots in 1969 and the LGBTQ+ activism that grew in its wake. This is included in a mailer from Stonewall 25, Inc. regarding a planning meeting for the 25th anniversary commemoration planned for 1994.