

Figure 1. A comparison of lesion lengths and widths of maize inbred lines and cultivars inoculated with different isolates of E. turcicum. The clear bars represent the lesions length and the black represent the widths. The names of the isolate sources and of the test plants are given in Table 3.