

Vita

Hussein S. Taha

Hussein S. Taha was born in Egypt, May 3, 1964. He received a bachelor's degree in Electrical and Computer Engineering from the Military Technical College (MTC), Egypt in July 1987. He worked in the airforce academy for three years as instructor and computer lab administrator. He graduated with his master's degree in Computer Engineering from the MTC in April 1993. Also, he worked in the airforce research and development center for three years as a researcher. He joined the doctoral program in the Bradley Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in 1996. He graduated with his doctor of philosophy's degree in Electrical Engineering in January 2000. His current research interests include range image analysis, computer vision, computer-aided design (CAD), artificial intelligence and pattern recognition.