

VITA

Robert T. Prince

Robert Terry Prince was born on September 7, 1974 in Salem, Virginia to William Prince, Jr. and Vickie Prince. He graduated from Lord Botetourt High School in Daleville, Virginia in June of 1992. Upon completing high school, he attended the Virginia Military Institute in Lexington, Virginia, receiving his BS in Civil Engineering in May of 1996. Following his BS degree, he accepted a Via Fellowship to study structural engineering at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. While finishing up his MS degree in Civil Engineering, he began work as a bridge engineer with Hayes, Seay, Mattern, & Mattern, Inc. in Roanoke, Virginia. He currently resides in Blue Ridge, Virginia and is still employed with HSMM, Inc.