

VITA

Virginia Woods Gerde was born in Indianapolis, Indiana, on October 22, 1967. She attended York High School in Yorktown, Virginia. She received a B.S.E. degree from Princeton University in 1989, with a major in civil and geological engineering, and she received an M.E. degree from University of Virginia in 1993, with a major in environmental engineering. Her Ph.D. in management is from Virginia Tech. Her fields of doctoral concentration are social issues in management and organization theory. Other areas of research are business ethics and environmental issues in business. She was awarded the Robert Litschert Memorial Fellowship Award in 1997.