

2021-2022 Student Activity Fee Student Organization Funding Report

The amount of the Student Activity Fee for 2021-22 was $330 and was used to support the operation, maintenance, and debt service expenditures for Student Engagement and Campus Life and for support of various student organization programming activities as determined by the Student Budget Board and Graduate Student Budget Board. For 2021-22, $2,396,151 was available to be allocated to support student organizations, which included a base allocation of $1,165,595 for fiscal year 2021-22, and $1,230,556 of unspent and/or unallocated funds carried forward from the prior fiscal year.

Student organizations applying for student activity fee funding must submit budget requests to be reviewed by the Student Budget Board (SBB) or Graduate Student Budget Board (GSBB). Only organizations that have registered with Student Engagement and Campus Life, are eligible to submit a budget request. All organizations may be asked to appear before the board to present their request and to answer questions of the board members. The Student Budget Board is governed by funding policies approved by the Commission on Student Affairs (CSA) and the Graduate Student Budget Board is governed by funding policies approved by the Graduate and Professional Student Senate (GPSS).

The Student Budget Board, a standing committee under the CSA, and the Graduate Student Budget Board, a committee under GPSS, are responsible for reviewing budget requests and making funding decisions for University Chartered Student Organizations (UCSO), University Student Life Programs (USLP), and Registered Student Organizations (RSO). Its membership is composed of Virginia Tech students. The Student Budget Board and Graduate Student Budget Board is advised by the Assistant Director of Student Organization Finance and Development in Student Engagement and Campus Life, a full time, administrative staff member.

The following groups received funding through the budget board process. For more information about an organization, please go to the Virginia Tech homepage www.vt.edu and select "Clubs, Organizations, and Involvement" under the Campus Life menu section.

Ask Big Questions	Ask Big Questions Fellowship/Internship is an opportunity for students to challenge each other to think outside of the box in conversation. It is a chance to master some powerful skills, form deep connections, build community on campus and learn about yourself. Ask Big Questions Conversations create a safe space for people to share ideas on topics that they wouldn't have the opportunity to discuss otherwise. We discuss questions such as "What informs your identity?" "For whom are we responsible?" and "Are we free?". The creation of safe spaces on our campus is necessary in order to be able to hear opinions that differ from the majority. A place in which someone who is often the minority can openly share their views and experiences allows for people who are generally part of the majority to widen their world view and understanding. Safe spaces exist for many minority groups, however ABQ conversations differ because they are not only a safe space for minorities they are a safe space for people of all backgrounds to come together and have these meaningful conversations so that everyone involved may leave with a new perspective. At a campus that can sometimes seem rather lacking in diversity, Ask Big Questions strives to create a sense of diversity through our facilitated conversations. In the past Ask Big Questions has organized a multitude of conversations across campus on various topics for various groups. We hosted conversations for most of the cultural months, for organizations on camps such as LGBTA, SERVE, and VT Engage. If you would like ABQ to lead a conversation for your organization or at an event you are holding contact us!	$10,944.00

Help Save the Next Girl	We are Hokies who believe that complacency in response to violence is not an answer; we are on a mission to make an impact on the culture in which we live to Help Save The Next Girl. We were founded on February 1, 2012 as the first student branch of the national campaign, Help Save The Next Girl, started by the parents of Morgan Harrington; a VT student who was abducted and murdered in October 2009. Morgan's story, as a student of Virginia Tech, is now our story, and because her voice has been forcibly silenced, we speak out. We are determined to show that we, as part of the Hokie Nation, exemplify a beautiful, vibrant, safe community full of solutions. We are inspired. We are united. We are motivated, and thus we are committed to do whatever it takes, for as long as it takes, to Help Save The Next Girl.	$7,500.00

SKY Happiness Club	SKY Happiness Club is a student organization which aims to uplift the lives of members of Virginia Tech community. The modern lifestyle which is fast paced, goal oriented and competitive leaves us all high and dry at the end of the day. We find ourselves unable to take care of the health of both our body and mind. While physical activities and exercises do help relieve stress at the physical level, the mental stress keeps building on leads to anxiety, depression and loneliness. Meditation has been scientifically found to be one of the best tools for relieving mental stress and providing relief from stress related decisions. The main objective of this organization is to provide access to evidence backed breathwork and meditation tools to the VT community. These will help people to connect with their inner selves deeply which will result in peace and joy in their lives. Once people have found such peace, they are inspired to work towards building the community and helping others. This is the second main goal of this organization.	$4,500.00
SNAME at VT	SNAME was organized in 1893, to advance the art, science, and practice of naval architecture, shipbuilding and marine engineering. For over a century members have included commercial and governmental practitioners, students, and educators of naval architecture, shipbuilding, and marine and ocean engineering. SNAME encourages the exchange and recording of information, sponsors applied research, offers career guidance, supports education, and enhances the professional status and integrity of its membership.	$1,600.00
Soil Judging	Soil Judging is used for many agricultural and engineering purposes. By understanding the geography and topography of an area alongside knowledge of soil formation, we can describe, interpret, and classify soils. Comprehension of soil properties can help us manage land and know how to best utilize it.	$3,628.00

Virginia Tech Clay Target Team	The club baseball team here at Virginia Tech is completely student run, meaning that we do not have a coach. We have a shortened fall schedule, roughly 8 to 10 games, and a full spring schedule, roughly 20 games. We compete within the National Club Baseball Association (NCBA) in the Mid-Atlantic north conference with James Madison University, College of William and Mary, University of Maryland, Longwood University, and the University of Virginia. The top team from each conference goes on to play in the regional tournament, then the winners of those get to compete for the club baseball World Series title. For the past three seasons we have finished at the top of our conference and went on to compete in the regional tournament. During the 2021 Spring Season, the Hokies won the South Atlantic Championship and the NCBA World Series. For us, the baseball is important, but not as important as the friendship. There is a definite emphasis on winning, but at the end of the day we are there because of our shared love of the game and other guys in maroon and orange.	$4,660.00
