The author(s) grants and assigns exclusively to JAAE for its use all rights in and to the above-named article of whatsoever kind or nature now or hereafter protected by the Copyright Laws (common or statutory) of the United States and all foreign countries in all languages, including all subsidiary rights. The JAAE, in turn, grants to the author(s) the right to reproduce the contribution separately, or in any book of which he or she is (or they are) the author(s) or editor(s), subject to giving proper credit to the original publication of the contribution by the JAAE.

The author(s) agree that there will be no monetary return from the JAAE for the use of the material. The JAAE is authorized to grant or deny any requests to reprint or translate all or any portion of the JAAE's contents to be published in a reader, anthology, second serial, digest, syndication, or non-book medium (dramatic motion picture-sight and sound-radio, television, electrical recording).

Employer Consent: The author(s) warrants (1) the work leading to the contribution was not performed under circumstances that would make the contribution one "made for hire" under the Copyright Laws, (2) applicable law vests ownership in the author(s) only despite the presence of an employer, or (3) a statement is submitted herewith signed by an appropriate administrative officer in which the employer's interest is conveyed to the SAEA as publisher of the JAAE.

Articles written by United States Government employees as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Such author(s), while not covered by JAAE policy on copyright release agreement, are still requested to sign this form in order to minimize problems associated with reprinting the JAAE.

Previous Publication: The author(s) guarantee that the material in the above-named article (or modification thereof) does not infringe upon other published material protected by copyright, it has not been published, is not being published, nor has it been submitted for publication elsewhere. If the article has been previously published in whole or in part and has been copyrighted other than by the SAEA, the author(s) guarantees that he or she (or they) will submit an assignment of copyright to the JAAE, and will supply credit with the manuscript.
