IMPORTANT INFORMATION – YOU WILL BE AGREEING TO TRANSFER YOUR COPYRIGHT IN THE ARTICLE

Please take the time to review the agreement before submitting. The wording in the agreement below sets out the terms and conditions under which the Named Authors and/or Copyright Owners (as applicable) will transfer or license the copyright in the Article to IOP. By submitting the agreement, you will be assumed to have read, understood and accepted all the terms and conditions.

Which parts of the agreement should you sign?

Please read the agreement carefully and then tick the appropriate box from section A, from section B and from section C in Part 3 to confirm:

- the basis upon which you would like the Article published if it is accepted (section A):
 - Subscription (the terms set out in Part 1 will apply) – this means that the Article will be available to individuals and institutions who subscribe to the journal in which the Article is published. This option generally meets the criteria of funding organisations to publish 'green open access' ('green open access' means that the Accepted Manuscript can be deposited in a repository after a set period known as an embargo period). Please see our Author Rights policy for further information on author rights after publication and ensure you are comfortable that it fulfils all your requirements.

- Gold Open Access (the terms set out in Part 2 will apply) – this means the Article will be published under a CC BY licence and will be available to everyone immediately on publication with no embargo period. You will be required to pay the Article Publication Charge of £1960/$2700/€2250(excluding VAT where applicable). By signing the agreement, and selecting Gold Open Access, you will be responsible for ensuring that this Article Publication Charge is paid in full, unless otherwise agreed in writing with IOP.

- the following (section B):
 - For Subscription - to confirm that, where relevant, each Named Author who is affiliated to a university/institution has:
 - checked whether their institution or university's open access policy is incompatible with IOP Publishing's green open access policy (some examples of incompatibility are set out further below), and
 - if it is incompatible, has obtained a waiver for the Article from their university/institution (institutions/universities allow for such waivers in their policies).

or

- For Gold Open Access - to confirm that you are responsible for ensuring that the applicable Article Publication Charge charged by the Journal for Gold Open Access is paid in full to IOP, unless otherwise agreed in writing with IOP.

and

- the basis upon which you are granting IOP the right to publish the copyright in the Article (section C):
 - in most cases a standard transfer of copyright will apply (please select this box unless one of the other scenarios below applies), or
 - under Crown copyright - the Article is fully protected by Crown copyright under section 163 of the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 or any subsequent amendment to that Act, or
 - under the laws relating to the US Government, or
 - Other – this should only be selected if you cannot agree to the terms of the agreement. Please note that, by selecting this, we will still require you to either resign the agreement or another agreement before we can accept the Article.

The Submitting Author should also sign and date the bottom of the agreement.

Who should sign the agreement if the Named Author(s) do not own the copyright in the Article?

If you, as the Named Author(s), do not own the copyright in the Article because, for example, it was prepared as part of your duties as employee(s), please

- warrant you have all the rights necessary to enter into the agreement on behalf of the Copyright Owner, by filling in the full name of the organisation/company who owns the copyright in the Copyright Owner box below and entering your name and the date at the bottom of the agreement. (Please ensure that you have made the Copyright Owner aware of the terms of the agreement and that you have the authority of the Copyright Owner to enter into the agreement on their behalf).

Who should sign the agreement if the Article has more than one Named Author?

If there are several Named Authors, one author (the Submitting Author) should submit the agreement on behalf of their co-authors in a representative capacity.

The Submitting Author must ensure that they have the authority of all Named Authors to enter into the agreement on their behalf.

I am affiliated to a university/institution, do I need a waiver from my institution or university's open access policy?

All Named Authors who are affiliated to a university/institution, who are publishing an Article on a subscription basis (i.e. not on a gold open access basis), must each obtain a waiver for the Article from their institution or university's open access policy if it is incompatible with IOP Publishing's green open access policy. Institutions/universities allow for such waivers in their policies. Each Named Author affiliated to a university/institution is responsible for checking whether their university or institution's open access policy is incompatible with IOP Publishing's green open access policy.

What are examples of open access policies which are incompatible with IOP Publishing's green open access policy?

Examples are:

- if the policy requires immediate depositing of the Accepted Manuscript with the institution/university; or
- if the policy requires the Accepted Manuscript to be made generally available within a shorter embargo period than 12 months from the date of first online publication of the Final Published Version by IOP Publishing; or
- if the policy requires the Final Published Version (rather than the Accepted Manuscript) to be deposited; or
- if the policy requires an open access or any form of creative commons licence to be attached to the Accepted Manuscript when depositing it in the institution/university repository which does not comply with the copyright status of the Accepted Manuscript*; or
- if the institution/university repository automatically attaches an open access or creative commons licence to the Accepted Manuscript which does not comply with the copyright status of the Accepted Manuscript*.

The above list is intended to provide examples only and is not a comprehensive list of how a policy could be incompatible with IOP Publishing's green open access policy.

*Accepted Manuscripts of subscription articles published by IOP are either fully copyright protected or published under a CC BY-NC-ND licence. To check the copyright status of the Accepted Manuscript, refer to the cover sheet attached to the Accepted Manuscript by IOP.

For more information on waivers, why IOP requires them, which Named Authors they apply to and how to request a waiver, please refer to this page.

1.5 Each of the Named Authors consents to all publication and processing of their personal data by IOP, as that data is displayed on the Article, including, but not limited to, the names and email addresses of the Named Authors. Accordingly, the Named Authors shall not object on data protection grounds to the use of their personal data on the Article wherever IOP chooses to display it, whether itself or via a third party.
