

Items the Graduate School Look for in Thesis/Dissertation Reviews for Approval

Degree, department, and type of document on the submission page matches your degree, department, and type of document on the title page

Check the format of the Title page

- Student's full name
- Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University as institution name
- degree and major
- type of document (thesis or dissertation)
- committee member names with middle initial (do not include Dr.)
- defense date
- 1-5 key words

General Audience Abstract follows Academic Abstract
