

Acknowledgments

Thank you to the following people, without whom this work would not have been possible:

Dr. G. Frederick Fregin for making it possible for the work to be carried out at the Marion duPont Scott Equine Medical Center.

Dr. Lydia Donaldson for her valuable ideas and advice, critical thinking, assistance with early efforts to adapt various pieces of equipment to equine use, and hours spent safely anesthetizing research subjects.

Dr. Eric Birks for practical advice and assistance in getting the thermodilution measurement system to work.

Dr. Kevin Corley for assistance with echocardiographic measurements and evaluation of my technique.

Daniel Ward for assistance with statistical analysis and practical advice.

Dr. Mike Davis for assistance with early efforts to adapt cardiac output computers to equine use.

Rae Neuman, Alex Reed, and Alix Wilson for their volunteer service.

The Staff of the Marion duPont Scott Equine Medical Center, especially Evelyn Eichorn, Steve Hummer, and Jesse.
