Kwame Ture Leadership Academy 2020-2021

Welcome:

Kwame Ture Leadership Academy (KTLA) invites you to become part of its inaugural cohort! Our leadership education program is specifically designed to meet the needs of student advocates and justice-centered organizations. On behalf of the program director and the advisory council, we invite you to apply for admission to our program. We know you'll love the experience!

Purpose:

KTLA will prepare a select group of students for current and future leadership and organizing roles on campus and in their broader communities by providing a structured program for skill building, access to culturally-centered and holistic knowledge on critical leadership and organizing, meaningful community engagement, and professional development.

Program Goals:

1. To identify students with potential to become Sema Leaders and to invest in their growth and development
2. To increase the capacity for leading effective change at Virginia Tech and other communities that students represent
3. To connect students to a culturally appropriate framework for leadership and community work

Benefits to Participants:

1. Develop a transferrable skill set that can be used personally, civically, and professionally
2. Team-based learning as well as one-on-one coaching
3. Access to intellectual resources and training materials
4. Community building with a strong cohort of passionate leaders

Due to the nature of this program, admission is limited to 15 students. Applications are due MAY 15 by 11:59pm. Email bfaulkne@vt.edu for eligibility requirements, to sign up for our Zoom info session on April 24 (10am), or to request the application link. If the university isn't open for Fall 2020 semester, then the program will be delayed.

KTLA is sponsored by the Gloria D. Smith Professorship in Africana Studies.

Kwame Ture Leadership Academy: Application Available!

"Ignite the flame that will lead the people, and never let it burn out." -Kwame Ture
 Dear students, we invite you to be part of the inaugural cohort of the Kwame Ture Leadership Academy! Our academy provides a dynamic, intensive leadership experience for students interested in social justice, anti-racism, and community engagement. Based on five pillars of community-centered leadership excellence, we will take a journey of skill building, self-exploration, and holistic development. Please see the information attached, and apply now!
