

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Throughout this research work, numerous people have provided support and encouragement. I would like to extend my sincere thanks to my advisory committee chair, Dr. Marte S. Gutierrez, for his enthusiasm, trust, support, and encouragement for this work. Likewise, I appreciate the interest and insights of my committee members: Dr. James K. Mitchell and Dr. James R. Martin.

My graduate work would not have been possible without the generous financial support of Geopier Foundation Company, Inc. I appreciate the suggestions, ideas, and critiques of Dr. Kord J. Wissmann, Chief Engineer of Geopier Foundation Company, Inc.

During the course of my graduate studies at Virginia Tech, I was fortunate to work and become friends with other students and visiting scholars. I particularly would like to thank graduate students Miguel Pando and Youngjin Park for their encouragement, advice, and support from the beginning of my studies. Guney Olgun helped me with computer codes: FLAC and Bandpass. I also would like to thank Hyunil Park and Bingzhi Yang for their friendships during my studies. Xiaohai Wang and Ann-Lise Roche kept me company during my long nights at Ozawa library.

My family has been a constant source of love, support, and encouragement throughout the studies and my life. I am grateful to my father Krisman Girsang, my mother Titi Hariaty Saragih, my sisters: Nani and Yanti and my brother Yanto for their prayers and support.

I would like to thank my former roommate, CB, who with me was struggling to finish one step of our journey in life and to my roommate, Roy, who graciously lent me his computer during this work.

I would like to express my gratitude to my family at Grace Covenant Presbyterian Church in Blacksburg for their love and encouragement they have offered me during my studies at Virginia Tech. Particularly, Gordon and Marilyn Woolard who welcomed me during my first weeks in the states and Doug, Dawn, and Drew Bowman for being my host family. My brothers and sisters at International Bible Study will always have a special place in my heart: Steve, Jay and Michelle, Alice, Tim, Debby, and Abijah, Neil and Laura, Reji, Reuben, Tom, Todd, Dinesh, Kyungmi, Churlzu and Hye-Young, Yi and Mingming. My American mom:

Sonja, who teaches me about politics and whose love to international students and life in Jesus truly inspire me.

Above all, praise and glory to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for salvation, strength, love, grace, faithfulness and mercy provided throughout my life.
