

LIST OF TABLES

TABLES

Table 1. Primary-care physicians surveyed ..... 35

Table 2. 150% of the 1998 federal poverty guidelines ..... 36

Table 3. Chronic diseases and conditions self-reported by FSNEP clients ..... 42

Table 4. Chronic disease, income, and age profile of physicians’ patients ..... 44

Table 5. Attitudes of physicians toward importance of diet in management or prevention of diet-related chronic diseases .. 45

Table 6. Persons providing nutrition advice during office visits as reported by physicians vs. FSNEP clients ..... 46

Table 7. Nutrition advice given during physician office visits as reported by physicians vs. FSNEP clients ..... 48

Table 8. Perception of primary-care physicians’ nutrition advice as reported by FSNEP clients ..... 50

Table 9. Referral of chronic disease patients to outside registered dietitians and community nutrition programs as reported by physicians vs. FSNEP clients ..... 51

Table 10. Nutrition services used as referral sources as reported by physicians vs. FSNEP clients ..... 53

Table 11. Attributes/factors that encourage or dissuade physician referrals to nutrition education services as reported by physicians ..... 54

Table 12. Influence of patients’ socioeconomic situations on referrals to registered dietitians or content of dietary advice ..... 56