The Author(s) hereby affirm(s):

- A. The Contribution entitled "The Benefits of Macromolecular/Supramolecular Approaches in H₂S Delivery: A Review of Polymeric and Self-Assembled H₂S Donors" is to be published in Antioxidants and Redox Signaling.
- B. Applicable Supplementary Material shall be published with Contribution in Antioxidants and Redox Signaling.

2. Obligations of the Authors(s)

The Author(s) warrant(s):

- A. Contribution and Supplementary Material is original and no part has been plagiarized, fabricated, or manipulated.
- B. All individuals identified as Authors* contributed to the Contribution, and all individuals who contributed are listed as Authors on the Contribution. [*See below for definition of "Author:"]
- C. Contribution is not under consideration in another publication and has not been published elsewhere, or in any other language.
- D. Contribution and Supplementary Material contains no libelous or unlawful statements; does not infringe upon the rights (including without limitation the copyright, patent, or trademark rights) or the privacy of others; does not contain material or instructions that might cause harm or injury.
- E. If applicable, Contribution meets all ethical guidelines and/or Internal Review Board approval in the treatment of human and animal studies (see Instructions for Authors), or meets the requirements set forth by the Declaration of Helsinki.
- F. Names and all identifying features or information have been removed from the Contribution's figures, tables, text, and Supplemental Material.
- G. Obtained re-use permission for excerpts from copyrighted works owned by third parties and attribution to the sources have been included in the Contribution.
- H. Author(s) have disclosed any conflicts of interest within the Contribution as a paragraph before the reference section.
- I. All contributing Authors are aware of the rights and conditions set forth in this agreement.
- J. The Author(s) will indemnify Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., against any costs, expenses, or damages, which may incur, or of which Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., may become liable as a result from any breach of these warranties contained herein. These representations and warranties may be extended to third parties by Mary Ann Liebert, Inc.

Authorship is defined as:

- Substantial contributions to the conception or design of the work; or the acquisition, analysis, or interpretation of data for the work; AND
- Drafting the work or revising it critically for important intellectual content; AND
- Final approval of the version to be published; AND
- Agreement to be accountable for all aspects of the work in ensuring that questions related to the accuracy or integrity of any part of the work are appropriately investigated and resolved.

3. Grant of Right

3.1. The Author(s) grant the copyright of this Contribution, including any graphic and/or video elements therein (e.g. illustrations, charts, moving images), is hereby assigned for good and valuable consideration to Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., effective if and when the Contribution is accepted for publication and to the extent assignable if assignability is restricted by applicable law or regulations. If copyright cannot be assigned to Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., because the Author(s) are government employees then the Author(s) agree to inform Mary Ann Liebert, Inc.

3.1A. For United States Federal government employees, works created within the scope of their employment are considered to be public domain, and Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., does not require a transfer of copyright for such works. However, Author(s) must sign this agreement and notify Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., of the Contribution's public domain status.

3.1B. For United Kingdom, Canadian, or Australian government employees, works created within the scope of their employment remain under Crown Copyright. This includes material created by civil servants, ministers and government departments, and agencies. The Author(s) agree(s) to grant an exclusive publishing and distribution license to Mary Ann Liebert, Inc.

3.2. The copyright assignment includes without limitation the exclusive, assignable and sub-licensable right, unlimited in time and territory, to reproduce, publish, distribute, transmit, make available and store the Contribution and Supplementary Material, including abstract, in all forms of media of expression now known or developed in the future, including pre- and reprints, translations, photographic reproductions and microform. Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., may use the Contribution and Supplementary Material in whole or in part in electronic form, such as use in databases or data networks for display, print or download to stationary or portable devices. This includes interactive and multimedia use and the right to alter the article to the extent necessary for such use.

4. Retention of Rights

4.1. Author(s) retain the right to self-archive the Author Accepted Manuscript version of their Contribution on their own personal website. Author(s) may also deposit their Author Accepted Manuscript version of the Contribution in any repository, provided it is only made publicly available 12 months after the official publication or later. The Author(s) may not archive or deposit the final published version (Version of Record), which is published on Liebertpub.com and in the Journal. Furthermore, the Author(s) may only post their Manuscript version provided acknowledgment is given to the original source of publication and a link to the published Contribution in the Journal is inserted. The link must be provided by inserting the Digital Object Identifier (DOI) of the Contribution in the following sentence: "Final publication is available from Mary Ann Liebert, Inc.: [http://dx.doi.org/\[insert DOI\]](http://dx.doi.org/[insert DOI])".

*For purposes of Clause #4, "Official publication" refers to the final published version (version of record) of the Contribution published within an issue of the Journal.

4.2. Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., hereby licenses back to the Author(s) the following rights with respect to the final published version (Version of Record) of the Contribution:

4.2A. The right to send or transmit individuals copies of the Contribution to research colleagues upon their specific request provided no fee is charged, and further provided that there is no systematic distribution of the Contribution (e.g. posting on listservs, repository, website or automated delivery). Posting the final published version on the open internet is not permitted.

4.2B. The right to re-use the Contribution or parts thereof for any publication authored or edited by the Author(s) (excluding journal articles) where such re-use material constitutes less than half of the total material in such publication. In such case, any modifications should be accurately noted. Posting the final published version on the open internet is not permitted.

4.2C. The right to include the Contribution in teaching or training duties at the Author(s) institution/employer including course packs, oral presentation, in-house training, and use in theses/dissertations. The Contribution may not be used in seminars outside of normal teaching obligations (e.g. commercial seminars). Posting the final published version on the open internet is not permitted.

6. Open Access

Should the Author(s) purchase open access for the Contribution, before online publication in the Journal, the publishing license granted to Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., in clause 3 will remain exclusive. Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., will apply a Creative Commons open access license to the Contribution and Supplementary Material for the purpose of publication in the Journal on an open access basis. The Author(s) retain(s) the following rights under an open access license: copyright, including patents, trademarks or other intellectual property rights; the right to distribute and reproduce the Contribution for noncommercial use without restriction; and the right to self-archive the Contribution immediately upon publication. For Open Access details, contact OpenAccess@liebertpub.com.
