Dr. Dawood,

You are allowed to republish this paper in your dissertation. The Seismological Society of America (SSA) no longer requires that permission be obtained from SSA to reprint tables, figures, or short extracts of papers published in SSA journals, provided that the source be appropriately and accurately cited.

Thanks for checking with us.

Good Morning,

I'm a PhD student at Virginia Tech and the first author of the following manuscript:

Dawood, H.M., and Rodriguez-Marek, A. (2013). "A Method for Including Path Effects in Ground-Motion Prediction Equations: An Example Using the Mw 9.0 Tohoku Earthquake Aftershocks." Bull. Seism. Soc. of Am., Vol. 103, No. 2B, pp. 1360–1372, May 2013, doi: 10.1785/0120120125

I'm currently formatting my PhD dissertation and would like to include this manuscript as a chapter in it. I would like to get an approval from you to republish it in my dissertation. Can you help me with that? or direct me to someone who can provide me with such documentation?

Thanks a lot,
Haitham
