

An Ecotoxicological Evaluation of Active Coal Mining, Sedimentation, and Acid Mine Drainage in Three Tributaries of the Leading Creek Watershed,
Meigs County, Ohio

by Henry A. Latimer II

Thesis submitted to the Faculty of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the degree of

MASTER OF SCIENCE in Biology

Donald S. Cherry, Chairman
David M. Johnson
George M. Simmons, Jr.
Carl E. Zipper

May 1999
Blacksburg, Virginia

Keywords: coal mine effluent, sedimentation, acid mine drainage, sodium, total dissolved solids

Copyright 1999, Henry A. Latimer II