

This letter constitutes the agreement between you, the Contributor,

Jobriath S. Kauffman
name
Mass Building, Suite 250, 1900 Kraft Drive, Blacksburg, VA 24061
address

and the Society of American Foresters, the Publisher, for publication of the following Work, including any accompanying photos, illustrations, graphs, and charts:

Monitoring Nontimber Forest Products Using Forest Inventory Data: An Example with Slippery Elm Bark tentative title

The parties agree as follows:

1. The Contributor grants to the Publisher the exclusive right to publish the Work and to sell or license any other rights to the Work held under this Agreement. The rights granted to the Publisher include publication in Journal of Forestry; first and second serialization and syndication; abstract, digest, condensation, and selection; microfilm and microfiche; reprints; audio, video, and electronic renditions; World Wide Web and other interactive formats; translation and foreign language publication. The Publisher shall secure copyright of the Work in the Publisher's name. The duration of this grant shall be for the period of the copyright in the Work and any renewal thereof.
2. If the Work was produced as part of the Contributor's official duties for the United States federal government, the Work is considered to be in the public domain and is not subject to United States copyright protection.
 I am a United States federal government employee, and this Work was created as part of my official government duties.
3. The Contributor warrants that he or she is the author of the Work and has the unimpaired right to convey copyright as granted in this Agreement; that the Work is not currently under review in any other publication; that it is original and has not been published before in any form; that it does not infringe upon any copyright, proprietary right, or other right of any kind; that it contains nothing unlawful or injurious; that statements represented as facts or reasonably understood to be facts are true based upon reasonable research for accuracy; and that he or she does not personally hold any interest in any Intellectual Property.
4. If the Work contains any copyrighted materials, including photographs, the Contributor has, at his or her own expense, obtained written permission from the copyright holder and delivered it to the Publisher, with any required credit lines or copyright notices.
5. If the Work was prepared by two or more coauthors, all the obligations of the Contributor under this Agreement shall be the joint obligations of each of them. Furthermore, the Publisher is entitled to rely on Jobriath Kauffman as representing the joint decisions of all the coauthors.
6. The Contributor indemnifies and holds the Publisher harmless from all claims, losses, expenses, fees, including any attorneys' fees, costs, and judgments that may be asserted against the Publisher that result from the acts or omissions of the Contributor.
7. The Publisher recognizes that the Contributor retains the following rights:
  - a. The right to use the Work, in full or in part, for the authors' personal use, including their own classroom teaching, with the following copyright and credit notice:

Reprinted from Journal of Forestry (vol. [ ], no. [ ]), published by the Society of American Foresters, 5400 Grosvenor Lane, Bethesda, MD 20814-2198. Not for further reproduction.
  - b. The right to use the Work, in full or in part, in the preparation of derivative works, extension of the Work into book-length, or other works, provided that it is accompanied by a full acknowledgement of the original publication.
  - c. The right to include the Work, in full or in part, in a thesis or dissertation, provided it is not published commercially.
  - d. The right to post a pre-print version (e.g., in Word or WordPerfect format) of the Work, revised if desired to reflect any changes made in the peer review process, on the authors' personal web site or within any institutional repository maintained by the authors' employer. The posted Work may not be a PDF of the final typeset version, and must include a full citation as well as a link to the printed version on the Journal of Forestry web site. The personal web site or institutional repository must not charge a fee for document delivery or article access.
  - e. The right of the authors' employer to use the Work, in full or in part, in any intra-company use. Reproduction for commercial redistribution would require permission from SAF.
  - f. Patent, trademark, or other rights related to processes described in the Work are not transferred under this agreement and thus remain the authors' (or the authors' employer's).
8. The Contributor shall not reprint or republish this material or reuse a significant portion of this Work in other works in any manner not outlined above without the Publisher's written permission. Other parties that desire to reproduce the Work, whether for free distribution or for sale, must first obtain written permission from the Publisher or the Copyright Clearance Center; a nominal fee may be charged.
9. The Publisher is not responsible for loss of or damage to the manuscript, disks, photos, graphs, or other property unless the loss or damage was due to the Publisher's negligence, except that the Contributor shall indemnify and hold the Publisher harmless for loss of or damage to original color transparencies, regardless of its cause.
10. The Publisher reserves the right to return the Work and terminate this Agreement. If the Publisher has not published the Work within 18 months of the date of this Agreement, and if, after written notification from the Contributor, the Publisher does not publish it within the succeeding 6 months, all rights shall revert to the Contributor.
11. The Contributor recognizes that the Publisher has and will have information, business affairs, customer lists, copyrights, and other proprietary information (collectively, "Information") that are valuable, special and unique assets, and shall not at any time or in any manner, either directly or indirectly, use any Information for his or her own benefit, or divulge, disclose, or communicate in any manner any Information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Publisher. The Contributor will protect the Information and treat it as strictly confidential. A violation of this paragraph shall be a material violation of this Agreement.

Paper Title: Automated Estimation of Forest Stand Age Using Vegetation Change Tracker and Machine Learning

We are pleased to have the opportunity to publish your paper in the Proceedings of the 10th Southern Forestry and Natural Resources GIS Conference. Prior to publication, we need to secure copyright for all papers published so that you as Author(s) and we as Publishers may be protected from unauthorized use of the Proceedings.

In order to expedite the publishing process we need to have, as a condition of publication, this copyright transfer agreement signed and returned as soon as possible.

Consent to Publish

The Author(s) transfer(s) to the University of Georgia's Warnell School of Forestry and Natural Resources (Publisher) the full exclusive rights comprised in the copyright.

Rights of Authors

The following rights are retained by the Author(s):

1. The right to make and distribute copies of the paper for the Author(s) own use in teaching or research, or for internal distribution within the organization that employs the Author(s), provided that the copies are not resold
2. The right to use and publish, after release of these Proceedings, all or part of the information from your paper in any original or derivative work, provided that acknowledgement is given to this Proceedings and a full citation to its publication is included.
3. The right to make oral presentation of the material in any forum.
4. The right to make copies of the work for internal distribution within the author's organization. In the case of a work prepared under a government contract, if the contract so requires, that the government may reproduce all of portions of the article and may authorize others to do so, for official government purposes only.

→ If you are a government employee, no U.S. copyright for the manuscript will be assumed assigned to the Publisher. Please confirm by initialing the appropriate space below.

The author(s) also declare by signing this agreement that this work is original and that it has not been published elsewhere. The Author(s) warrant(s) that the paper contains no libelous or other unlawful statements, and does not infringe on the rights of others. If excerpts from copyrighted works are included, the Author(s) has (have) obtained written permission for publication in print and electronic format from the copyright owners and will credit the sources available. The parties also agree to indemnify and hold each other harmless for any and all liabilities and costs arising from the representations made, and terms agreed to herein.

Authorship

If the paper was prepared jointly with other Author(s), the signing Author has informed the Co-Author(s) of the terms of this copyright transfer and is signing on their behalf and represents that he or she is authorized to do so. Please confirm by initialing the appropriate space below.
