

VITA

David Keith Welling, grew up in the Laurel Highlands of Southwestern Pennsylvania. After graduating from Connellsville Area High School in 1971 he studied Elementary Education at California University of Pennsylvania. Soon after graduation in December of 1974 he began his career in education as a teacher in West Virginia. During his teacher career he completed the requirements for a Master's degree in Educational Administration from West Virginia University and went on to lead schools as an elementary and middle school principal in West Virginia and Virginia. While in Virginia, he completed the requirements for a Doctor in Education Administration from Virginia Polytechnic and State University in 1999. Currently, he is the Superintendent of Schools of the Salisbury Elk-Lick School District, Salisbury, Pennsylvania.