Dear Anne,

As you know, I am completing my doctoral dissertation at Virginia Tech, entitled “Set in Stone: Rhetorical Performances at Virginia Tech’s April 16th Memorial.” I am writing to request permission to reprint images from the personal digital photograph archive that you shared with me during our meetings in February of 2019.

Any photographs I include in my research from your digital collection will be properly captioned and attributed to you as the photographer and creator of the image(s).

The requested permission extends to any future revisions and editions of my dissertation research, including prospective publications. These rights will in no way restrict republication of the material in any other form by you or by others authorized by you. You will maintain copyright to all of the materials you shared with me. Your signing of this letter will also confirm that you own the copyright to the above-described material.

If these arrangements meet your approval, please sign the letter where indicated below and return this letter to me at brookec9@vt.edu. Thank you very much for your support in my research endeavors—your help has truly been instrumental.

Sincerely,
Brooke Covington

PERMISSION GRANTED FOR THE USE OF REQUESTED MATERIALS:
