Dear Steve,

My name is John Legg and I am finishing my MA thesis at Virginia Tech. I wanted to ask permission to use an image from the October 2, 1987 article "Students and Winter Warrior." This is for a Master's Thesis that will be published in Virginia Tech's ETD database online. I've added the full citation of the article, but wanted to make sure with the Free Press.

If you're not the person to decide this, could you point me in the right direction?

I've included the photo as a screenshot from my thesis.

Best regards,
John

Hi John,

Thank you for reaching out. I give you permission to use this article and photo for your master thesis as long as it is properly attributed to The Free Press.

Good luck with your thesis.
