

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I would like to thank my advisor Dr. Allan A. Yousten for his wisdom, guidance, and support over the last three years. I would also like to thank my committee members, Dr. G.W. Claus and Dr. K.W. Hilu for their advice and support.

Thanks to Dr. George Lacy and Verlyn Stromberg for working with me on the DNA similarity studies and for allowing me to use their lab to perform the experiments.

Thanks to my family (Doris, James, and Marie) and my friends (especially Chuck, Teresa, Carol, and Bill) for their encouragement and belief in me.

Thanks to the microbiology graduate students for the study sessions and get-togethers; to Amy T. for her PCR expertise and wonderful conversations; to Laura, Kathy, and Cathy for their endless help.
